

Concerning the Scientific Advisory Committee of the project, this will consist of the following academics and experts:

- Andreas Georgopoulos, Professor and Head of the Laboratory of Photogrammetry at the National Technical University Athens), with extensive experience in geometric documentation of monuments, 3D digitizing and visualizations, automation and digital techniques and non-conventional imaging systems.
- Salvatore Carlucci, Professor in Built Environment, The Cyprus Institute, with extensive research experience in sustainable built environment and energy simulations, at both building and urban scales.
- Dr. Skevi Perdikou, with extensive research and professional experience in environmental issues using satellite remote sensing
- Mr Christos Efthivoulou, former president of the Technical Chamber of Cyprus (EOTEK), and Chief Engineer at the Department of Electrical and Mechanical Services, with extensive experience in Non-destructive testing.

The consortium of PERISCOPE project consists of 10 partners: ● The Cyprus Institute (Coordinator), ● Cyprus University of Technology (CUT), ● Frederick Research Center (FRC), ● Fondazione Bruno Kessler (FBK), ● Ministry of Interior – Town Planning and Housing Department (TPH), ● Municipality of Strovolos (MS), ● Municipality of Limassol (ML) ● NetU Consultants Ltd (NetU), ● HIT HYPERTECH INNOVATIONS LTD (HIT), and ● RTD Talos Ltd (Talos).